RED TRIANGLE RECEPTION honoring Ron Rosetto

[TOMS RIVER, October 30, 2019]—On Thursday, October 24, the Ocean County YMCA honored Ron Rosetto, with a 2019 Red Triangle Award. The award reception held at Park Pavilion in Seaside Park, NJ, honored the Rosetto Realty Group President & Founder, with the YMCA's highest honor. Reception sponsors included the Jay & Linda Grunin Foundation, The Citta Foundation, Causeway Family of Dealerships, and Paul L. Rhine CPA, LLC, amongst 28 other notable businesses and philanthropists.

Rosetto, the area's leading authority in commercial and retail real estate, is the co-founder of HOPE Sheds Light, a nonprofit organization dedicated to educating families about the disease of addiction by creating awareness, providing resources and instilling HOPE to support a healthier community.

The Ocean County YMCA honored Rosetto who has been devoted to the advancement of the YMCA and partnering organizations, and has made a significant contribution to building a stronger community.

The YMCA and fellow sponsors were honored to recognize the commitment of Rosetto, a longtime Toms River resident.

About the Y

The Ocean County YMCA strengthens the Ocean County community by nurturing the potential of children, promoting healthy living, and fostering a sense of social responsibility. Since it was founded in 1970, the Y has striven to create opportunities for children and adults to live healthfully and try new experiences in a values-based environment. Today, as a growing and vibrant movement the Y provides services to more than 8,000 community members, by promoting the core values of caring, honesty, respect, and responsibility while serving Ocean County residents of all ages and physical abilities.
